Rainforest Hike in Girdwood

Hiking the Winner Creek Trail in the lush Rainforest of Girdwood is an exhilarating experience that is a memorable adventure for everyone. Rainforeest hiking trip is great for adventurous people of all ages.

Passing through North America's Northern most rainforest, the Winner Creek trail has genge, graded, maintained sections with boardwalks as well as plenty of rugged, rooty sections of trail.

This 5 mile "out and back" hike is a 2-3 hour excursion and includes a friendly guide who will point out and discuss flora and fauna—you may even see a moose or bear!
